The first is that they are admitting that they aren't good at something. If you admit that you're not good at something, that is the first step to actually getting better at it. You're not saying "all men suck" or "there aren't any good guys out there". You're saying "my dating success is on me". The second reason is that you acknowledge that it's something you suck at and that other people might be better than you.
