The result is a life lived in joy, harmony, and contentment. In my teachings, "The Circle of Fire" ceremony celebrates the most important day of our lives: the day when we merge with the fire of our spirit, and return to our own divinity. This is the day when we recover the awareness of what we really are, and make the choice to live in communion with that force of creation we call "Life" or "God." From that day forward, we live with unconditional love in our hearts for ourselves, for life, for everything in creation. This book, first published in 2001 as "Prayers: A Communion with Our Creator," will remind you of what you really are. Key Takeaways & Analysis of Don Miguel Ruiz's the Four Agreements

A Practical Guide to Personal Freedom (a Toltec Wisdom Book) CreateSpace

The Four Agreements by Don Miguel Ruiz | Key Takeaways & Analysis The Four Agreements is an introduction to Toltec spiritual philosophy as interpreted by New Age shaman Don Miguel Ruiz. Ruiz's Toltec philosophy describes the cultures, laws, and morals of humanity as the "dream of the planet," because the human mind is dreaming whether it is awake or asleep. Those morals and expectations are taught to people when they are born and as they grow older through a process called human domestication. When someone accepts the domestication, they accept the dream of someone else. This is called an agreement. Anyone who goes through the domestication process will eventually domesticate others. This domestication is reinforced by two internal voices: the Judge who punishes the mind by reminding it of all the ways someone has failed to live up to the internal book of law, and the Victim who accepts this punishment. Punishment is a dream of hell and contributes to the foggy state of mind that Toltec spiritualists call mitote. Living according to the four agreements reverses domestication and creates the dream of heaven on earth... PREVIEW: Don Miguel Ruiz's The Four Agreements was published in 1997 and remained on The New York Times bestseller list for seven years thereafter. Ruiz, like fellow best-selling spiritualist author Deepak Chopra, had gone to medical school and became a doctor. Also like Chopra, he would become disenchanted with the practice of medicine and sought to distill the wisdom of his ancestors. Chopra's two biggest-selling books, Ageless Body Timeless Mind and The Seven Spiritual Laws of Success, had appeared in 1993 and 1994, respectively, and would remain fixtures on bestseller lists for years to come. While Chopra's books were rooted in Transcendental Meditation, Indian natural philosophy, and the teachings of the Mahareshi Mahesh Yogi, Don Miguel Ruiz turned to his forebears, the Toltecs, an ancient civilization in Mexico from about 1,000 years ago. The Toltec, Ruiz explained, were not so much a nation or race as a group of seekers of knowledge within a variety of disciplines who formed a society through which a communal exploration and conservation of spiritual knowledge and participation of ancient practices was possible.
