ENHANCING POWER THROUGH MUTUAL INFLUENCE. Post-heroic leadership is about powering up—increasing the total power of each individual, every unit, and the entire organization. That is a hard goal to disagree with, but individual managers are often more interested in increasing their own power, believing that they have too little.

Power Up: Transforming Organizations Through Shared Leadership

In Power Up: Transforming Organizations Through Shared Leadership, they diagram this model and show corporations how to adopt it. Blasting the fundamental assumption that leaders are responsible for everything within a company (and any unit therein), they suggest that management actually is the responsibility of everyone and offer ways to encourage such behavior even when resistance exists.
