In Love And Struggle Letters

In Love and Struggle is a lively story of second-wave British and American feminists, revealed through their public and intimate letters. From the women's encampments at Greenham Common and beside the Seneca Army Depot to the Fourth World Conference on Women in Beijing, Margaretta Jolly shows how vital epistolary testimony has been.

In Love and Struggle: Letters in Contemporary Feminism ...

During the women's movement of the 1970s and 1980s, feminists in the United States and Britain reinvented the image of the woman letter writer. Symbolically tearing up the love letter to an absent man, they wrote passionate letters to one another, exploring questions of sexuality, separatism, and strategy.

Those who write to a lover wrestle with words' inadequacy, exaggerating the awareness in all letter writing of physical absence. At the same time, of all genres, love letters most obviously demonstrate writing's ability to arouse, to prolong, and even, especially in paper form, to fetishize desire.
