If you prefer the left side of the bed, you're more likely to be creative, imaginative and prefer beer over wine. You're also more likely to like drama films and older music. But if you sleep on the right side of the bed, you probably prefer wine over beer, action films and rock music. The study also found that righties are more conservative than those who sleep on the left!

Getting out of the 'wrong side of the bed' is an allusion to starting the day on the wrong foot. As to the source of being born (or conceived) on the 'the wrong side of the blanket', there is no pat answer. Presumably there was also a right side of the blanket, but there aren't any known references to that either.

'The wrong side of the blanket' - meaning and origin.

THE OTHER SIDE OF THE BED is a musical / comedy about two couples. This is the end with any similarity on any American movie in several years. Here the romance is not the main point. The sex is. The story is simple. Two couples (Javier / Sonia and Paula / Rafa), very good old friends.
