The Evolution Of Gatt Wto

Evolution of GATT as trading institution and transition of GATT to WTO. General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) was a legal agreement between many countries, whose overall purpose was to promote international trade by reducing or eliminating trade barriers such as tariffs or quotas. According to its preamble, its purpose was the “substantial reduction of tariffs and other trade barriers and the elimination of preferences, on a reciprocal and mutually advantageous basis.”.

The General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) traces its origins to the 1944 Bretton Woods Conference, which laid the foundations for the post-World War II financial system and established two key institutions, the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank. The conference delegates also recommended the establishment of a complementary institution to be known as the International Trade Organization(ITO), which they envisioned as the third leg of the system.
