Urban Planning And Governance A Urban planning is a dynamic activity that works to improve the welfare of people and their communities by creating more convenient, equitable, healthful, efficient and attractive places for present and future generations (American Planning Association, 2006). Urban governance on the other hand is the sum of the many ways individuals and institutions, public and private, plan and manage the common affairs of the city (UN-Habitat, Campaign, 2003).

Urban Planning and Governance - Governance Systems ...

This course starts from the premise that politics and governance arrangements can both enable and constrain effective urban planning action. Using a focus on cities in the developing world, the course examines an array of governance structures (centralized versus decentralized institutions; local versus national states; participatory budgeting, etc.) and political conditions (democracy versus authoritarianism; neoliberal versus populist versus leftist party politics; social movements) that ...
