One example of a scientific revolution is the shift from geocentrism to heliocentrism. Geocentrism was once considered to be the correct explanation for Earth's central position in the universe. However, Copernicus and Galileo had shown that the Sun, rather than the Earth, was the centre of the universe (Brysbaert, & Rastle, 2013; Kvasz, 2014).

Is the Fourth Industrial Revolution a Paradigm Shift?

The last 20 years have seen a revolution in the job-market and at home as increasing numbers of women have entered the workforce. For working parents today, there is a second shift - the job they do before they get to the office and after they return home. In many marriages, it is the job that tears the family apart.
