The Chapel Perilous Iron Druid

The Chapel Perilous was first published in 2014 and allows Atticus to recount his experience in the quest for the Holy Grail – but from a revisionist standpoint: according to Atticus, his earlier pagan, druidic quest for the legendary Dagda's Cauldron was later retold from a Christian perspective.

The Chapel Perilous
(The Iron Druid Chronicles, #4.8)

The story is basically one big geekout for me and, as it happens, something of an origin story for Atticus. We learned in Hounded how he came to possess Fragarach, and we learned in Two Ravens and One Crow how he learned the recipe for Immortali-Tea, but what makes him the Iron Druid is his cold iron amulet and the silver charms on his necklace. The ideas for those come to him in “The Chapel Perilous,” as well as his inspiration to teach language to animals (such as Oberon).
