Wandering Son
Volume One Shimura
Wandering Son is a very gentle story, with no politics and no drum to beat. What Shimura Takako does best is to convey the emotional turmoil of people who are dealing with being,

and especially just realizing that they are,
different in a way that is going to cause trouble, one way or another.

Wandering Son, Vol. 8 by Takako Shimura

Really excellent follow up to volume one. The characters continue to grow, and explore their identity, and what that might mean for them as they grow older. It's nice to see they have an adult that they can confide in. I was especially proud of Saori's actions when she sees Shuichi being bullies.
