There are three sizes of title blocks: a block used for A-, B-, C-, and G-size drawings, a slightly larger block for D-, E-, F-, H-, J-, and K-size drawings, and a vertical title block. The vertical title block format must be used for all 22-in. by 34-in. (D-size) drawings and is optional for 28-in. by 40-in. (F-size) drawings.

Technical Drawings - Title Block

An engineering

drawing is a type of technical drawing that is used to convey information about an object. A common use is to specify the geometry necessary for the construction of a component and is called a detail drawing. Usually, a number of drawings are necessary to completely specify even a simple component. The drawings are linked together by a master drawing or assembly drawing which gives the drawing numbers of the subsequent detailed components, quantities required, construction materia
