This is the second book in the "Hell's Son" fantasy romance series. I recommend reading the first book, "Lazy Son", before starting this book. The story contains references to other series by the author ("Welcome to Hell", "Hell's Princess", and "Wickedest Witch"); however, one does not have to read any of them in order to enjoy this book.

I LOVED jilted prince! Chris and Isobel's love story took a surprising turn at the end of Lazy Prince, and book 2 started off with a great big BANG! We jumped into the story, right where it left off, and took off running... through swamps, on big "dogs", from evil voodoo priestess', and from a disembodied (possibly imaginary) voice.

Book two in the Hell's Son series picks up where we left off in Lazy Son - Chris has been left by Isobel at the altar, after both were surprised by who they were marrying. Unfortunately, Chris has given Isobel the impression that he was 'fine' getting hitched to anybody, instead of being upset that it wasn't her.
