They Should Have Asked My Husband by Pam Ayres

Pam Ayres I am going to kill my husband, I have stuck all I can stick, His constant criticising is getting on my wick. He takes it all for granted, but tonight I can relax, For the minute he complains, I shall whop him with the axe. Yes, I'm going to kill my husband, I shall have him to be sure, He's never going to curse my navigation any more.

I love Pam Ayres, so knew I would like this CD. When I read her poems myself I always 'hear' her voice in my head - but it's not the same as actually listening to her. I saved the CD for weeks until I had to make a long and stressful journey - then I used it to keep me awake when I was getting tired. It was a complete life-saver!!!!
