Loving Julia Karen Robards

Loving Julia. Seventeen-year-old Jewel Combs is not a lady. She is a guttersnipe living hand-to-mouth on London's mean streets when she meets a dying man who marries her to spite his aristocratic family. Cold, aloof, breathtakingly handsome, Sebastian, Earl of Moorland, is the head of that family, and when widowed Jewel belligerently presents herself to him as his newest relative his inclination is to throw her back out on the streets.

Loving Julia by Karen Robards

Loving Julia is a wonderful example of a classic historical romance. There's no rush to hit the bedroom, the bad guys aren't 'misunderstood boys who weren't hugged enough as a child' and Robards took her time in building the characters ensuring they were fully realized BEFORE they met.

Loving Julia by Karen Robards - Goodreads

I love Karen Robards writing, and wanted to read all of her work. There are not many I missed, but this was one. It is a spicy, dramatic, dark version of My Fair Lady. Though uncomfortable at times, the storyline rings true to its genre and that author is a master at twisty turns that enthralled the reader. I enjoyed the ride.
