During den Adel 's promotional travelings throughout Europe, critics and radio stations were given access to the new material, and the first public impression came through German radio station Rock Antenne, alongside with the first preview of "Dangerous", which was considered "fast" and "aggressive". The song is one of the band's heaviest to date, as den Adel stated that "it has the most bass drums we've ever used, too, and a very fast riff which we doubled with synths.

Dangerous (Within Temptation song) - Wikipedia

KJ-52 has so much cred in the gospel world that it's awfully hard for anyone else to come close. After more than half a million records sold, six Dove Awards, and numerous collaborations with Christian music royalty, we arrive at the concept album Dangerous, the gospel hip-hopper's eighth studio album. It's an unflinchingly honest effort, with KJ's legendary flow operating at full bore.
