Good Enough Paula Yoo

Paula Yoo's Good Enough is a funny, inspiring ode to music and Korean parents. Loosely based on the author's life, this novel is very realistic about parental pressures and the stress of college applications. My favorite thing about this book is the message that your college major doesn't have to define you.

Good Enough by Paula Yoo

Good Enough was like my bible during high school~ Not only does Paula spin the tale of the forbidden love, but she does it in such a way that is easily relatable. She navigates around cautious topics: Racism, bullying, teenage pressure and stress, with grace and finesse, and shows what troubles a poc might have in America.
