The Dark Lord's Handbook by Paul Dale - Goodreads

Having thoroughly enjoyed the Dark Lord's Handbook, Part 1, I was delighted to discover this sequel a little while ago. It's a properly long book, it took me a while to get through it, but it doesn't feel long because of the excellent characterisation, pithy one liners, silly puns - which I loved, of course - and pace. It zips along pretty quickly.

The Dark Lord's Handbook was a highly entertaining read that I had trouble putting down. The story follows the rise of the dark lord from humble beginnings to his growing power while following the handbook written by evil itself. At the same time, the story follows his predestined orphan hero opposition as he grows in power and esteem.
