While preaching is a ministry of proclaiming truth, teaching primarily relates to explaining truth. The basic principles that I mentioned in the previous chapter on preaching certainly apply to teaching as well. But teaching has a specific purpose to it that makes it different than preaching.

The Ministry of Teaching | Jake Kail

The teaching ministry is a building ministry. Without that ministry we will experience weakness in our walk with God. The ministry of the teacher is to take the vision (or principles of God) and expand them (break them into smaller sections) so we can understand and put truth into practice in our lives.
