Poems have rhythm. One of the traditional differences between regular literature and poetry is the use rhythm and metre. A poem's metre is the regular rhythm that it adopts. Contemporary poetry sometimes moves away from the traditional conventions of metre, but largely metre plays an important role in the poetry you will study at school.

How To Analyse A Poem In 6 Steps | Beginner's Guide to Poetry

The theme is the central point which the poem makes. Here, we are presented with some-one who seems enviable in every way. Then we learn that he must have been in despair, as he kills himself. So it seems that we can conclude that we should not judge by appearances, as they can be deceptive.
