One Winter's Night

A Walk One Winter Night

A moving story about a man who walks

by a big nativity scene one cold winter's night, and really sees for the first time the people at the centre of the Christmas story: Jesus, Mary and Joseph. The text does not seem to be written for children, even though it is a small picture book, but instead has the naturalism of one adult speaking to another.

"A Walk One Winter Night" started as an invitation from Dave Barnes for Al to share a Christmas story at Dave's Christmas concert. There was such an overwhelming response to the story that Worthy Publishing decided to turn it into a book. For those outside the Christian music community, Al is a treasure to us.
