Redliners David Drake

A 20th anniversary edition of REDLINERS is out from Baen July 2016 with a new introduction. Redliners is possibly the best thing I’ve written. It’s certainly the most important thing, both to me personally and to the audience I particularly care about: the veterans, the people who’ve been there, wherever ‘there’ happened to be.

Redliners - David Drake

couched in an in depth military sci-fi setting, Redliners is Drake's ultimate attempt to come to terms with his time in Vietnam, and the cost both the war and his own actions (and the actions of those around him) took on him.

Redliners by David Drake

Wow, that sounds preachy and political, but Mr. Drake's Redliners is anything but. The rest of the story is action just like the start of the story, because the government, in the person of the Unity leader, found a solution.

Redliners by David Drake - Books on Google Play

David Drake's Redliners is a fascinating traditional science fiction. Initially, it seemed really brutal with the campaign against the "spooks," the Kalendru, an alien race very different from humans. But the effect of the brutal experiences Strike Force Company C41 had on Operation Active Cloak would have redlined them from further military duty.
