A guide to Labour Party anti-Semitism claims - BBC News

Antisemitism in the United Kingdom signifies hatred of and discrimination against Jews in Britain. Discrimination and hostility against the community since its establishment in 1070 resulted in a series of massacres on several occasions and their expulsion from the country in 1290. They were readmitted by Oliver Cromwell in 1655. In the 19th century, increasing toleration of religious minorities gradually eliminated legal restrictions on public employment and political representation. However, J
