Recent management now uses an interdisciplinary set of approaches to solving conflicts.

Human-wildlife conflict - Wikipedia

Dec 21, 2019 by Priya Chauhan in Animals. The series of human-wildlife conflicts goes way back to primitive times, especially in a country like India that has a huge human population and a vast range of biodiversity. The land is limited and so are the resources. But, since the human settlements have reached the edges of forests, episodes of human-animal conflicts have increased as the wild animals often wander into the human colonies due to the dwindling forest area.
