Church Family And Friends Day

Friends and Family Day at a church is a day on which members of the church are encouraged to invite as many friends and relatives as possible to join them for a day of worship. The individuals who are invited for the day are not official members of the church. Friends and Family Day can be celebrated in many ways.

What Is a "Friends and Family Day" at Church?

Ask each member to invite personal friends and family members to church. Set up special sections or booths honoring the guests. Make a bulletin board or a large welcoming sign, and hang it over the doorway or outside the church. Indoor and outdoor seating should be sufficient to accommodate large crowds.

What Are Ideas for Family and Friends Day at Church?

"Pastor, our small church needs help organizing a Friends and Family day for the end of August to launch our new season. Can you help us?" As we talked on the phone, we kicked around a few ideas unique to their church, but developed some ideas that are useful to many churches. So here are 6 steps to a successful "Invite a Friend Day."

6 steps to organize Invite a Friend Day

Family and friend day in church is when the church makes a unified effort to make the service relevant to those who may not be accustomed to the way church operates. The worship music is catchy and inviting, the congregation is prepared to see more visitors that day and make them feel welcome.
