Parenting with LoveMaking a Difference in a Day Bookcraft, Incorporated

Parenting isn't easy. It's a lesson in patience, human behavior, and most important, it is a labor of love. In Parenting with Love, author Glenn Latham teaches parents simple and effective ways to change their own behavior and thus create an environment in which their children will behave well. The author explains that using positive reinforcement, appropriate touch, smiles, laughter, and attentive listening can help parents avert negative reactions from their children and approach those children more wisely in times of rebellion or disobedience. The author also encourages parents to avoid parenting traps, such as criticism, sarcasm, threats, and argumentative problem solving. After all, these methods of communication tend to fail when used on anyone; and the last place a parent should fall prey to one of these traps is in his or her own home. Parenting with Love will teach parents to avoid these traps. Every parent, in fact, can benefit from this book—a book so simple that changes can be made in a day, bringing into reach every parent's ideal of a loving home. Book jacket.

How to Establish Boundaries, Gain Respect & Turn Problem Behaviors Around in 5 Days Baker Books

Parents may survive the terrible twos and the first years of school all right, but the teenage years bring entirely new and alien creatures. So, parents have a choice: either send that teenager to boarding school and visit him when he reaches normalcy again (in about ten years) or choose to experience the best, most fun years of life--together! The secret is in how the parental cards are played. With his signature wit and commonsense psychology, internationally recognized family expert and New York Times bestselling author Dr. Kevin Leman helps parents communicate with the "whatever" generation establish healthy boundaries and workable guidelines gain respect--even admiration--from their teenager turn selfish behavior around navigate the critical years with confidence pack their teenager's bags with what they need for life now and in the future become the major difference maker in their teenager's life Teenagers can successfully face the many temptations of adolescence and grow up to be great adults. And parents, Dr. Leman says, are the ones who can make all the difference, because they count far more in their teenager's life than they'll ever know . . . even if their teenager won't admit it (at least until she's in college and wants to know how to do the laundry).

The students' school experience must acknowledge the daily influence of the family in the classroom. To ignore this `hidden link' is to remain ignorant about students' lives and motivations, and makes it very difficult for educators to improve schools and schooling.
