1 decade ago. Favorite Answer. A key passage in a book would be one or several paragraphs in the book where whatever action transpires determines the outcome of the plot. It's a part that's crucial to the storyline. If the book is a true story or autobiography it would be the part of the story where a key decision or a life-changing event occurs.
Again, even in real life, it would be a part that would determine the outcome and/or help you understand the
