Oxford and Cambridge are both collegiate universities, which means they consist of the central university and a number of financially-independent colleges. There are over 30 colleges at Oxford and 29 at Cambridge. So once you have selected your university and course, you'll need to consider the colleges on offer.

The Which? University guide to Cambridge University is to offer "second chance" places after A-level results for the first time this summer, in a deliberate bid to increase the number of disadvantaged students.
