Through the Psalms, God gave me a means to bring my anger and confusion into his presence. Again and again, in communal and personal prayer, I began to see how my suffering is part of a much larger drama — for God is bigger than cancer. Hoping Enough to Lament. I was not given a magical answer as to why God allowed my cancer to hit me.

I am so so sorry to hear of your loss. I lost my mom almost a year ago to lung cancer and her ending was awful, lots of pain and not peaceful. My mom was my best friend and we did everything together, we had a very close and unique bond. I cannot explain how it felt to lose her, I truly thought my heart would break and I wanted to be with her.
