Dear God Letter and God's Reply Dear God, We've been together for a long time. Over the years, we have been learning more and more about each other—or should I say, I've been learning so much about You! As the years have gone by, my love for You is getting stronger and stronger. You are my everything.

Dear God Letters: Communicating with God - Greene Pastures

Dax revealed the following about the meaning of this song, "So I've always believed in God and I still do, I've never not believed in God, but I think as you grow older and you start to figure out there's a world around you and you can think for yourself, you develop these questions. So I think that's where 'Dear God' sort of came from."
