MLA Documentation Guidelines

The current MLA guidelines teach a widely applicable skill for citing research. Once you become familiar with the core elements that should be included in each entry in the Works Cited page, you will be able to create documentation for almost any type of source.

MLA Formatting and Style Guide // Purdue Writing Lab

As detailed in the 2016 MLA Handbook, MLA uses a parenthetical documentation system, which means you will place citations in parentheses within your own sentences to indicate you have used ideas, information, and quotations from sources at that particular spot in your paper; the parenthetical information points to specific sources in an alphabetized list of works cited (it's not called a bibliography in MLA), which appears at the end of your paper.
