One Foot - Two Feet

One Foot Two Feet is an exceptional counting book. It has windows cut to show the singular then turn the page to find the hidden grouping. It not only teaches counting from one through 10 (then it skips to a billion!) but also teaches common irregular plural nouns (foot-feet, child-children, person-people, goose-geese, octopus-octopi etc).

Foot and Feet are two words that are often confused when it comes to their usage. In the measurement of height the word 'foot' is used instead of the word 'feet' as in the sentence, 'My brother is six foot'. Note that such a kind of usage is done in the conversational style and not in the written style.
