7 Steps to Writing an RFP That Gets High-Quality Responses

Updated November 14, 2019. A request for proposal, sometimes called an RFP or RFQ ("request for quotation"), is a document a company issues when it wants to buy a product and it wants to make its specifications available to the public. This is usually the case when several companies will bid on the work and the RFP invites more competitive prices. But, if you don't prepare the RFP correctly, your effort might produce bids that are a waste of time, or worse, no bids at all.
