I felt that the "Cracking the CBEST" had better explanations and I felt the practice tests were more practical. Although the Cliffs gives 4 practice tests and that is great for anyone who wants to hone in on any areas that they are having trouble in or just wants some extra practice to be prepared. I was skeptical about the publishing dates of both of these books when I bought them because the Cracking the CBEST was published in 2002 and it looks like Cliffs was published in 2000.
