“With The Permission Society, his fourth magnificent book, plus countless articles, speeches, and legal briefs, Timothy Sandefur has emerged as one of America’s most important political and legal theorists. Rich in both theory and example, this book puts the modern world of liberty only by government permission in perspective.

The Permission Society - Encounter Books

Timothy Sandefur: The Permission Society is my term for a society in which the individual’s freedom is seen as a privilege or a permission that is given to the citizen by the government as opposed to a free society where people are presumed to be free and it is the government that has to ask the people’s permission.
