The Invisible Man Novel Summary

Invisible Man. The narrator begins telling his story with the claim that he is an “invisible man.”. His invisibility, he says, is not a physical condition—he is not literally invisible—but is rather the result of the refusal of others to see him. He says that because of his invisibility, he has been hiding from the world, living underground and stealing electricity from the Monopulated Light & Power Company.

Invisible Man: Plot Overview | SparkNotes

SUMMARY: The narrator of Invisible Man is a nameless young black man who moves in a 20th-century United States where reality is surreal and who can survive only through pretense. Because the people he encounters "see only my surroundings, themselves, or figments of their imagination," he is effectively invisible.
