In order to be successful, authors need translations, and they need publishers who can push and market those translations. In Greece, however, lack of accessible Greek translation means that Greek literature is floundering on a global market. A Legacy of Literary Genius. The Greek literary tradition is one of the oldest in the Western world.

Why Is Greek Literature Lost in Translation? | The ...

Direct reception of Greek texts. As knowledge of Greek declined in the west with the fall of the Western Roman Empire, so did knowledge of the Greek texts, many of which had remained without a Latin translation. The fragile nature of papyrus as a writing medium meant that older texts not copied onto expensive parchment would eventually crumble and be lost.
