The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the EU's new privacy law, aims to bring order to a patchwork of privacy rules across the EU. As GDPR is a regulation, not a directive, it has binding legal force and will be immediately enforceable as law in all EU member states on May 25, 2018. Greater consistency across European countries should be great news for all email marketers, but GDPR also comes with quite a few changes that impact the email industry.
