Rapid Response: Re: Margaret

McCartney: Vocation, vocation, vocation
 The reason why the present government ignores calls for adequate funding and feels it can carry on as before -or worse now with STPs- is because they realise that this sense of vocation will keep senior doctors going.

Re: Margaret McCartney: Vocation, vocation, vocation | The BMJ

As nouns the difference between response and vocation is that response is (senseid)an answer or reply, or something in the nature of an answer or reply while vocation is an inclination to undertake a certain kind of work, especially a religious career; often in response to a perceived summons; a calling.
