Wise And Foolish Virgins White

Both the wise and the foolish fall asleep and need to be roused, but the wise have made provision so that their lamps are ready. The conclusion to the parable, 'Stay awake ( gregoreo) therefore, for you know neither the day or the hour' sits uneasily with the preceding narrative, so should perhaps be read as a conclusion to the earlier teaching rather than this parable in particular.

The parable of the wise and foolish virgins in Matthew 25 ...

There was only one difference between them: the wise virgins took oil in their vessels together with their lamps; the foolish virgins did not realize that they had to take oil in their vessels. "Command the children of Israel that they bring to you pure oil of pressed olives for the light, to make the lamps burn continually."
