Women of the Word is a prescient book that not only convicts women readers of the absolute necessity of theology, but also offers an accessible plan for correcting this shortcoming. Wilkin even goes a step further, presenting a vision for what will happen if Christian women do become faithful readers of His word.

Book Review: Women of the Word, by Jen Wilkin : 9Marks

Jen Wilkin's Women of the Word has been the beneficiary of some major marketing efforts. It was the talk of this year's Gospel Coalition National Conference for Women and has been pushed heavily in the blogosphere. And I'm glad to say that it proved my skepticism wrong—it is an excellent little book.
