Transitions in Context: Leaving
Home,
Independence and

In this book, Clare Holdsworth and David Morgan analyse young people's transitions towards leaving home, based on empirical data from qualitative interviews with 58 young people and their parents, collected in three national contexts: the UK (Liverpool), Norway (Trondheim) and Spain (Bilbao). Presenting this transition as highly significant within the lifecourse, they explore how leaving home is experienced across place and time, and at an individual and national level.
