gangster scene. But what stands out in this intelligent, intricately woven crime procedural - with a plot to make your brain hurt - is the undercurrent of slick and highly enjoyable humour reminiscent of Raymond Chandler,

updated for the twenty-first century.

This is my first book by Joel Hames and won't be my last. Dead North has all the ingredients of a fast paced thriller with a fabulous main character, Sam Williams, a lawyer with a very dry sense of humour, finds himself summoned up North to Manchester to help a colleague solve a double cop murder case with a suspect who won't say a word.

Dead North (Sam Williams #1) by Joel Hames

Dead North is the first in the bestselling Sam Williams Thriller series, which includes, No One Will Hear, The Cold

Years, and prequel The Art of Staying Dead.

Dead North (Sam Williams, book 1) by Joel Hames

Having first been introduced to Sam Williams in The Art Of Staying Dead, I was looking forward to reacquainting myself with him in Dead North. This book, as with all of Hames' previous books, is a finely balanced combination of tension, action and thrills.
