Three Days To Dead Dreg
'Three Days to Dead' has a unique premise, interesting plot, and is technically proficient, however, it lacks the emotion and detail that would make it exceptional. Evy Stone is a hunter, a member of an elite and secret branch of the police force that enforces order over the "dregs". When she is resurrected in someone else's body, the clock begins ticking to recover her memories, find her ...

Being brought back is not without its consequences, after all, and she has only three days to solve her murder and figure out who betrayed her team, because as if resurrection wasn't complicated enough, it also comes with an expiration date. In three days Evy will be dead...again.

Three Days to Dead (Dreg City, Book 1): Meding, Kelly ...
Three Days to Dead operates on a similar idea with a much more successful execution. I don't recall the first time I died, but I do remember the second time I was born. Vividly. Waking up on a cold morgue table surrounded by surgical instruments and autopsy paraphernalia, to the tune of the medical examiner's high-pitched shrieks of fright, is an unforgettable experience. - first line from ...
