Our spirit becomes more mature in love through our earth experience (and possibly experiences, although that wasn't mentioned in this book particularly, although I think I recall a possible hint.). It tells how each one of us has a perfect spirit inside of us, which is also God's love.

In 1995, Mills was told by a heavenly messenger to write his story in a book and to tell what he remembers of life before his birth. The Soul's Remembrance is that book. Now, nearly fifty years after his birth, Roy Mills humbly shares the memories of a glorious world that most of humanity has forgotten. In his book, The Soul's Remembrance; Earth is not Our Home, Mills reveals the enormity of this pre-mortal world, an existence in which we grew in love as we prepared for our lives on Earth.
