Introductory Calculus For Infants: Inouye, Omi M ...

I was very pleasantly surprised when we bought the Introductory Calculus for Infants and I had the chance to read it. It is primarily an ABC book, using mathematical concepts for each letter (like D for derivative). It has a compelling (and subtle in many aspects) story full of optimism, about friendship, being nice and believing in oneself.

The road to greatness starts at an early age, and a children's book dedicated to introductory calculus will put your kid on the right path. Written by Omi M. Inouye, a programmer and admitted average math student, Introductory Calculus For Infants follows a couple of characters as they discover the 'wonders' of calculus. I'm going to go out on a limb here and assume this book isn't ...
