Revenge is sweeter than any of us may want to openly admit. In saying this, I do not mean that every conservative evangelical Christian sits around frothing at the mouth, hand on sword, ready to take on the world. Speaking as a former evangelical, we’re far too repressed for such a sustained outward spirit of vengeance.

A Taste for Vengeance is another well executed installment in the Bruno series. Though not a novel for the Jack Reacher fan, Walker is a terrifically descriptive writer. His imagery of the land and its people are stark reminders that we do not need a shootout or chase to enjoy a wonderful adventure with a quirky yet interesting policeman.
