Truman's story is an unfolding of one unlikely event followed by another unlikely, momentous event. Truman's second term included the founding of the state of Israel, the unpopular start of the Korean War, and the eventual firing of Douglas MacArthur. It was not just the decisions and the policies implemented that really struck me as a reader.

USS Harry S. Truman - Wikipedia

In early 1948, Harry Truman prepared to run for President in his own right. Few people gave him any chance of reaching his goal. The economic difficulties of reconversion and popular perceptions of him as unrefined and blunt had hurt his popularity. His inconsistencies on the Palestine issue contributed to a sense that he wasn't up to his job.
