The Shadow of the Cross: Studies in Self-Denial. by Walter Chantry Chapter 7

"Prayer". "And Asa cried out to Yahweh his God, and said, Yahweh, it is nothing for you to help, whether with many or with those who have no power. Help us, O Yahweh our God, for we rest on you, and in your name we go against this multitude.

The Shadow of the Cross: Studies in SelfDenial

The entire system of Judaism, with its types and symbols, was a shadow of the cross, extending from Calvary back to the gate of Eden, and contained a compacted prophecy of the gospel. At the present day the person who comes to the study of the New Testament through the interpreting lights of the types and symbols of the Levitical services, finds a depth and richness in the study that are found in no other way.

In the very heart of the earth and in the very center of time, stands the cross of the Son of God. And in the shadow of that cross, every Christian apostle, and witness, and martyr, and preacher proclaims the glory of our grace and salvation found in His love and sobs and tears. In the shadow of the cross every apostle stood to preach.

Shadow of the Cross. We are not a typical gallery or for that matter, a typical business either. Preservation and information is our goal and, because we have such a large collection of photo negatives, it really is more journey than anything else... and we are just starting out. An example of this is a photo called "Shadow of the Cross" (the feature image for this post).

Belonging to Jesus Christ (he said) meant taking up the cross personally and living for him rather than for ourselves. In The Shadow of the Cross, Walter J. Chantry restores this often neglected teaching to its central place. Writing with the stirring and probing sharp-edged style which is the hallmark of all his books, he expounds in brief compass the practical necessity of bearing the cross and the joy of living under its shadow.

Shadow Of The Cross by Walter J. Chantry | Banner of Truth UK

The shadow of the cross; it is a sign, a sacred symbol of the love and grace and compassionate care of God for the human race. There are no frontiers; the arms of the cross are outstretched. As far as the east goes east and as far as the west goes west, so do the arms of the cross embrace all of lost humanity.
