Green on Blue: A Novel is a 2015 work of fiction written by Elliot Ackerman. Set in modern-day Afghanistan, it is told through the point of view of Aziz, a young boy who must join the "Special Lashkar" - a U.S. funded militia - in order to save his injured brother. Dr. Truman Anderson has called Green on Blue a "morally complex debut novel" for how Ackerman explores the themes of loyalty to family and nation, revenge, and the brutality of war throughout the novel.

Green on Blue - Wikipedia

Green on Blue is a first novel written by Silver and Bronze Star Marine with five tours of duty in Iraq and Afghanistan. The book is about an Afghan man's life journey from adolescence to his becoming a fighter for a U.S funded militia. Stunning use of setting and character development.

Britain's Railways Series: Volume 4. A fascinating but much overlooked era for the modern traction enthusiast is the changeover from the old British Railways green and maroon to the corporate image Rail Blue of the new British Rail, which stretched from the mid-1960s to the very early 1980s. This book, containing 160 colour photographs, aims to portray the many varied livery styles worn by British Rail's locomotives, units and coaching stock during this time.
