Puddocky - Wikipedia

While on her way to college, Ruri and her classmates from her secondary school days were summoned to another world by a bright light that shone on the ground. The summon was supposed to call forth a shrine maiden that would bring glory to the country. With 'a' being the operative word, it seems that she was just an unfortunate bystander that got mixed up in the summoning.

Pure white cats are fairly rare in the general cat population, as they require a gene that hides every other possible coat color and pattern in a cat's genetic makeup. These cats can have short or long coats and be a single breed or a mix. They also tend to have light-colored eyes. If you're looking to adopt one of these striking felines, here are 10 breeds that produce white cats.

The Best White Cat Breeds to Keep as Pets

Unlike allegedly unlucky black cats, all-white cats symbolize good luck and good fortune in cultures across the globe. The well-known Japanese Beckoning Cat (also known as Maneki Neko) is most often depicted as a white cat. Originating some time around 1870, these figurines are placed near the entrances of homes and businesses to bring in good luck.

Stubbornness and harmonious and balanced serenity: Franz Marc loved the design of the cat and has implemented it in a series of works, often in conjunction with the portrait of young girl. One of the most famous images, the "White Cat" in oil on cardboard, dates back to 1912. We offer them as carefully converted three-dimensional sculpture.
